The Honorable James T. Lynn, Director
Office of Management and Budget
Washington, D.C. 20503

Dear Mr. Lynn:

Included in the final reports of both the President's Commission on CIA Activities within the United States and the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities were recommendations relative to the role and stature of the CIA General Counsel.

The Rockefeller Commission's Recommendation 10(b) proposed that "consideration should be given to measures which would strengthen the Office's (i.e. Office of the General Counsel) professional capabilities and resources"

The Senate Select Committee specifically proposed in Recommendation 66 of their Final Report dated April 26, 1976, that "the General Counsel should be promoted to, and the Inspector General should continue to hold executive rank equal to that of the Deputy Directors of the CIA."

Prior to his departure, Director William E. Colby indicated his agreement that the General Counsel should be elevated to an executive level rank equal to that of the Deputy Directors within the CIA. I have already instituted certain actions strengthening the role and organization of the Office of the General Counsel and wish to advise you that I intend to elevate the General Counsel to the rank of Executive Pay Level 4, which is equal to that of the Heads of the four Directorates.

Sincerely,

George Bush
Director
